Aaron Jones

Legendary football coach Vince Lombardi once said:
“The dictionary is the only place that success comes before work.
Hard work is the price we must pay for success.
I think you can accomplish anything if you're willing to pay the price.”

We celebrate the phenomenal work and spectacular success of McClymond's 2007-2008 undefeated basketball season (32-0);
finishing the 2007-2008 season ranked No. 5 in the nation by USA Today;
and being named the State Team of the Year.

We commend you for recognizing that your victories on the court are as equally valuable as those off the court;
that teamwork doesn't happen only when you're wearing the same jersey;
and that each student's individual skills contribute to McClymond's success.

And we honor the entire 2007-2008 team for your commitment to education, and your resolve and purposeful determination to succeed together.

Presented on April 9, 2008

Fred Sims, President
Alameda County Board of Education

Sheila Jordan, Superintendent
Alameda County Office of Education
